

REDEEMED

Dear Partner,

Grace and peace to you in the mighty name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. I am so happy to call you a partner of this ministry. We are very grateful to the Lord for your fellowship in the gospel. I am excited to share with you that which the Lord has placed upon my heart for you. This year is a year of redemption for you.

As we stated in last month's partner letter, Christ hath redeemed us. Therefore, we are redeemed.

Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: Galatians 3:13.

Again, redeemed means: properly, take full advantage of, seizing a buying-opportunity, i.e. making the most of the present opportunity (recognizing its future gain). He purchased us with His blood and brought us back to our original place in Him before sin ever was. We have been redeemed. Purchased by His powerful blood. Cleansed from sin and its guilt. However, we were brought out of the curse, but why?

That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. Galatians 3:14.

We were redeemed so that we could go back to our original place in The Blessing. This blessing is the most powerful tool in our walk with the King and Savior. He redeemed us from the curse that is listed in Deuteronomy 28:15-68. He has put us in our foremost place. The Blessing.

Now, to some, this may not mean much. To covenant-minded persons, this is huge. It is the thing that the Lord had in mind when He created mankind. The adversary so desired this impartation, this endowment, this power, that he murdered to get it. Once he deceived the woman and Adam transgressed, what he thought would make him (the serpent) like God turned to the worst. You see, the blessing works in the life of faith and love. Not selfishness and greed. The blessing makes a man or woman to operate like the Most High God. It is the enlistment that performs on a God level. It is The unstoppable anointing. Our Lord Jesus Christ, through the anointing, gave His life so that you and I would be removed from the curse (demonic anointing to continually fail) into the Blessing.

Under the curse in Deuteronomy 28, an individual would fail over and over again. Nothing they would do would excel. Their expectations would be shattered over and over. And it is not because of God. It would be the individual's fault for not coming under the umbrella of protection by hearing with the intent to do what Father God said. His commandments are not dreadful and wearying, but beneficial.

Every place in Deuteronomy 28:1-14 lets us know the Father's original intent. From Genesis 1:26-29 to Genesis 9:1, we see the plan of God for mankind. Blessing. From Genesis 12. All the way to Galatians 3:14, we see our Heavenly Father's plan. To give us the Blessing.

One must ponder so properly on Galatians 3:13-14. Christ took us from the curse to the blessing. It is yours. You have been redeemed, purchased from the empowerment of sickness, disease, lack, confusion, insecurity, and the like unto divine health and protection. Wisdom and understanding of all spiritual things and the like.

This year, allow the plan of God, The Blessing, to be at the forefront of your thinking. YOU ARE REDEEMED. God has assigned you to be blessed. Hallelujah.

Allow the Blessing to work for you today, tomorrow, and forever.

We of Destiny Christian Center love you. We are praying for you. As you sow your faith seed this month by the leading of the Holy Spirit, keep a joyful heart and mind. Release your angels to go forth and bind first the adversary of your seed and rejoice as if you have it because by faith you do.

Shalom Shalom,
