

Praise the Lord,

Grace and Peace from our Lord Jesus Christ. We stand believing in prayer that all things are possible with God, and that all things are possible with you who believe that all things are possible.

Some years back, I had the wonderful privilege of going to a tent meeting hosted by a new friend of mine. This meeting was a special surprise for me. I was headed to a cabin for a time of fasting and prayer. A few days before arrival, I had a vision of angels waiting on me there. I entered the cabin, sat at the dinner table, and then the angels of the Lord poured oil on me. My expectation was up, as I expected to receive from the Lord. When I reached the cabin, I saw no angels or anything of such.

I remembered that my wife had asked me to pick something up to bring back home from my visit at a store in this town. When I left, I noticed a tent and thought to myself, "That looks like a ministry service; if they are there when I get back, I'll stop in." Little did I know, it was a ministry meeting; however, it wasn't just any meeting. This is where the vision had brought me to.

When I got in the tent, I was greeted by some wonderful people who asked me if I knew about the oil. I didn't understand the question, and they took me to see a bible that had been producing oil for the past 17 months. Later that night, the preacher said that the Lord brought you here to see that anything is possible with Him. He said, "If God can get oil out of a bible, what can He do through your life?"

Well, what can He do through you? More importantly, what will you allow Him to do through you?

This is a very simple question; however, it requires real thought. What will we allow Him to do through us? Can He depend on us? Will we consecrate ourselves for His pleasure and desire? Is it worth it? What will I need to sacrifice? On the other side of it, we can ask, what are the benefits and rewards of doing such? Now, we don't have to look too far before finding out that the Lord has done great things for and through those who have given themselves over to Him. We can find many persons from scripture: From Abraham, the Father of Faith, to Moses and Aaron, Esther, Elijah, Ezekiel, to Jesus and Peter. They all had very powerful lives and great testimonies.

It is the Lord's will to use you and me. It is His will to raise us up to do great and mighty things, but it comes with a requirement. See and listen to the words of the Holy Spirit through the Apostle Paul to his son Timothy in 2 Timothy 2:20-21.

But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour. If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.

The end of verse 21 says, "Prepared unto every good work." Not some good works, but every good work. It is the Lord's desire to manifest Himself through us; however, we have a huge part to play in this. Take the liberty to meditate this over and over until it gets into your spirit. Allow these words to be sown into your heart until they have lightened your way. Until the next time. Walk in your blessings.
