

REDEMPTION

Grace and peace to you Sister Tracy,

What is in the name redemption? What have you been redeemed from? What is redemption? As the scripture says in Galatians 3:13, Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree. He has redeemed us; however, it is our responsibility to manifest that redemption. He has done His job. What have you rescued your life from through faith in the blood of Jesus?

It would be beautiful if this thing were done automatically. I mean, you receive Jesus as Savior and Lord, and then, wow, there is no work; just kick back and enjoy the bounty. That sounds great, right? Well, if that were so, we would be some very weak and feeble people when push comes to shove. We were designed to exert force. We were designed to be strong and courageous. We were created to be just like our Heavenly Father.

Being like Him requires us to use the abilities that He's provided to be fruitful, multiply, fill up the earth, subdue, and have dominion over it. It requires us to go from one level of faith to another. It requires diligence and patience. This life as a believer is a progressive thing. One that moves from one level of victory to another.

Last month, a question was placed in my heart. That question was, what have you actually done with the power that has been given to you regarding redemption? What have you exchanged your redemption for? Have you used what has been provided for healing, abundance, salvation, or the like? Or have you just hoped that God would do all your work for you? This is a serious question that needs to be meditated upon and answered.

We must put our hands to the plow. We must put the sickle in. We must: if the work that He has done is to be manifested.

1. What areas of your life has redemption been appropriated?
2. How did you apply the word of God in that area?
3. Have you shared your testimony regarding your redemption with others?
4. What areas of your life have you noticed that redemption has not been applied?
5. Do you believe that you have what it takes to manifest redemption in every part of your life?
6. Are you convinced that the Lord loves you?

7. Are you convinced that it is the Lord's will for you to walk fully in redemption and not just a part?
8. When did you first hear that you have been redeemed?
9. What was your initial reaction or response?
10. Have you let go of your redemptive rights if things have seemingly taken too long and have not come to pass yet?

As we conclude this letter, I'd like to say that we love you, we pray for you, and we are looking forward to hearing the testimonies of God in your life.

Shalom Shalom
