

Grace and peace,

There are fundamentals and principles to the Kingdom of the Lord. There are laws, established ways throughout every depth and light of our Creator, yet there is more! We cannot settle for surface-level understanding, and even the deep revelations we've heard are nothing compared to what we could know. There are things about the Lord that are unlawful for man to speak, revelations that cannot be shared with the masses, but that doesn't mean we can't know them. There are secrets yet to be revealed.

The writer of Hebrews (who I believe was Paul) declared that concerning the mercy seat and the cherubim above the mercy seat, they couldn't at that present time speak or go into detail about it. (Hebrews 9:5). Paul also spoke to the church of Corinth and told them he could not speak unto them as spiritual or adults, but as babes. They couldn't bear what he had to say. (1 Cor 3:1). There are many things that the Lord desires for us to know, but some of us are not mature enough to handle them, and yet there are things Paul told that church that we "who claim to be spiritual," don't understand.

The Holy Spirit is there to lead us into the dimensions of the deep and explore the heights, much like being in a capable spaceship navigating the darkness of space. He will teach you all things. (John 14:26). He relates and interprets spiritual truths to you. (1 Cor 2:13-16).

I have personally encountered some of these things. They have left an unerasable mark, an indelible print upon me that will forever remain. Things seen, heard, experienced, and smelled in the realm of the Spirit.

On one occasion, I was walking down a dirt road and for a split second, I was in this bubble. I did not have light on what it was. However, I did know that whatever I spoke would manifest at that time. Later, I found out it was a level in the glory. While in this bubble, I sensed that fear and worry were on the outside, but they couldn't get in. The Bible says in Psalms 8:5 that we have been crowned with glory and honor. To be crowned means to be encircled for attack or protection. The glory and honor protected me from fear and worry, and my faith was not hindered.

On another occasion, while confessing the Word of our Father, it seemed as if everything changed immediately, but it was still the same. In the natural, everything at that present time remained the same, but in the Spirit realm, faith was conceived. Faith became a reality.

Once I was confessing the Word, and when confessing scriptures of the Holy Spirit, a dimension of Him was opened. I knew that I was shown what led to another realm of the Holy Ghost to explore. That is mainly why I am writing this.

When I was first born again, I used to smell this wonderful, beautiful aroma. When I smelled it, I would ask others if they also smelled it, but they did not. One day, this aroma filled my room, and everyone in it smelled it. I've heard others say the same thing. I've also seen a host of demons and angels and have heard them talk to me, etc.

But there is more; I'm continually dissatisfied with what I know. Not unappreciative, but I yearn for more.
